O&B has worked closely with Proskauer Rose LLP (“Proskauer”) and other consultants for the Oversight Board in the formulation of the different legal strategies designed to further PROMESA’s mandate of returning the Commonwealth to fiscal responsibility and access to capital markets.

18. O&B has worked with Proskauer in, among other things, the following:

Constitutional issues; and (d) performed other professional services as described in this Application and reflected in Schedule 3 and Exhibit B.

Question: If the fees sought in this fee application as compared to the fees budgeted for the time period covered by this fee application are higher by 10% or more, did you discuss the reasons for the variation with the client?

Question: Have any of the professionals included in this fee application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of the bankruptcy case?

Response: No.

Question: Does the fee application include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices? (This is limited to work involved in preparing and editing billing records that would not be compensable outside of bankruptcy and does

(ii) Did your client agree when retaining the law firm to accept all future rate increases? If not, did you inform your client that they need not agree to modified rates or terms in order to have you continue the representation, consistent with ABA Formal Ethics Opinion 11-458?

(ECF Nos.: 13891-7) Such rate increases are based upon such criteria as whether a particular timekeeper has been promoted because of his/her demonstrated skills, whether a particular professional has demonstrated developing skills, experiences, or competency, whether the particular rate is in tune with current market rates, and other similar objective criteria.

51. This Project Category includes time spent by O&B in assisting our co-counsel, Proskauer Rose LLP, in the submission of its filings for the collection of its fees for the work performed on behalf of the Oversight Board in these Title III proceedings.

52. The professional services performed by O&B were reasonable, necessary, appropriate, and beneficial when rendered, facilitated the effective administration of the Debtors' Title III cases, and were in the best interests of the Oversight Board and the Debtors' creditors, residents, and other stakeholders. O&B further submits that the Compensation for which approval is being sought is commensurate with the complexity, importance, and time-sensitive nature of the problems, issues, and tasks involved. The professional services of O&B were performed in an efficient and effective manner.

53. Therefore, the Court should approve the compensation sought by O&B in compliance with the requirements in the Bankruptcy Code. Namely, the fees requested are fair and reasonable because these Title III cases are complex matters that required the time spent by O&B given the nature and extent of the services. Furthermore, O&B expertise in the bankruptcy field together with the value of its services and the costs of comparable services in other cases show further compliance with the Bankruptcy Code.

Actual and Necessary Expenses of O&B

54. Pursuant to the Guidelines, Schedule 4 is O&B's summary of actual and necessary expenses incurred on behalf of the Oversight Board as representative of the Debtors during the Compensation Period.

55. In accordance with paragraph C.13 of the Appendix B Guidelines and as more fully described in Schedule 4, O&B seeks reimbursement for its necessary and reasonable expenses, including: (a) reproduction, (b) online research, (c) delivery services and couriers, (d) postage, (e) local travel to and from airports, (f) out-of-town travel, (g) out-of-town meals, (h) court fees, (i) transcription services, (j) litigation support, and (l) professional services. All expense entries are detailed and explained in Exhibit B.

56. O&B currently charges from $0.10 (black and white) to $0.40 (color) per page for Title III photocopying expenses; and this is reflected in the submitted invoices. All expenditures are of the type customarily billed to clients are detailed on Schedule 4.

57. During the Compensation Period, O&B has disbursed $1,131.80 as necessary and reasonable expenses. The expenses charged are detailed and described in Exhibit B hereto. The actual expenses incurred by O&B were necessary, reasonable, and justified to effectively serve the needs of the Debtors in its Title III cases.

Compensation Paid and Its Source

58. The services and expenses for which O&B is requesting approval of the Court were performed or incurred on behalf of the Oversight Board as representative of the Debtors. In connection with the matters covered by this Application, O&B received no payment and no promises of payment for services rendered, or to be rendered, from any source other than the Debtors. There is no agreement or understanding between O&B and any other person, other than members of the firm, for the sharing of compensation received for services rendered in these Title III cases.

59. PROMESA sections 316 and 317 provide for interim compensation of professionals and govern the Court's award of such compensation. 48 U.S.C. §§ 2176-2177. PROMESA section 316 provides that a court may award a professional person employed by the Debtors or the Oversight Board under PROMESA "(1) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the professional person, or attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and (2) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 48 U.S.C. § 2176(a). Section 316 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded ... the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (1) the time spent on such services;
- (2) the rates charged for such services;
- (3) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this chapter;
- (4) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

(5) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

(6) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this subchapter or title 11.

48 U.S.C. § 2176(c).

60. As noted above, the professional services and expenditures object of this Application were necessary and beneficial to the Oversight Board as representative of the Debtors. O&B worked diligently to anticipate or respond to the Oversight Board's needs and assist in the Oversight Board's role in these Title III cases. The compensation for which O&B is requesting approval herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Oversight Board.
